DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's arguments filed 16 July 2004, with respect to claims 1-88 have been fully considered and are persuasive. Therefore, the rejection of last office Action has been withdrawn.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

2. Claims 1-88 are allowed over the prior art of record.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

With respect to claims 1, 21, 41, 61 and 81, the claimed features "a method for evaluating similarity among a plurality of data structures comprising: matching said at least one substructure to a database having a plurality of entries to obtain at least one matching entry based on a semantic concept associated with said linguist feature-value pair, said database encoding relationships between semantic concepts represented by said plurality of entries, each semantic concept representing an "is-a" relationship between the entities" in conjunction with other elements of the independent claims would not found anticipated or obvious over the prior art made of record. With respect to claims 12, 32, 51 and 72, the claimed features "a method for evaluating similarity among a plurality of data structures comprising: creating a plurality of entries in a database for subsequent comparison with linguist feature-value pairs based on semantic concepts associated with said linguist feature-value pairs, said database encoding relationships between semantic concepts represented by said plurality of entries, each semantic concept representing an “is-a” relationship between the entities” in conjunction with other elements of the independent claims would not found anticipated or obvious over the prior art made of record.

The dependent claims, being definite, further limiting, and fully enabled by the specification are also allowed.

3. The closest prior art, Berger et al. U.S. Patent Numbers 5,510,981 and 5,642,519 both are related to a speech interpreter but fail to teach the above limitations.

4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled “Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance.”
